

Laborer/Carpenter Apprentice

Job Description

Classic Homeworks is a design/build remodeling company that works primarily on older homes in the core part of Denver.

We are currently searching for a qualified laborer/carpenter apprentice who has 1-2 years of construction experience, preferably in residential remodels. Only those who show up on time, are willing to work hard, learn, and can follow instruction need apply. Must have valid driver's license and vehicle to drive to multiple job sites. Truck or van preferred.

Daily tasks will include:

- Demo and tear out
- Job site cleanup
- Hauling trash
- Picking up materials
- Framing
- Learning carpentry skills
- Assist construction crew as needed

Additional details:

- Compensation, dependent on experience
- Benefits after 90 days (health/dental, gas/tool allowance & more)
- Steady work - room for growth for the right person that wants to work!

Please reply via email to info@classichomeworks.com with your experience, preferably with a resume and wage expectations.

Employment type: Full-time